Manager's Commentary

June was a positive month in terms of absolute appreciation of the fund, reaching +0.09% compared to the +0.14% recorded by its benchmark. This was largely due to the fund's slight exposure to duration in government bonds, although we believe this situation will be reversed.

During the month, French and Italian government bonds were bought for valuation against German bonds. We have also taken advantage of the month to buy primary issuance bonds, such as Cajamar and US dollar issues such as the supranational issue of Corporación Andina de Fomento for spread valuation and positive carry.

With these movements, the fund has increased its duration, which is currently at 2.79 years vs. 1.99 years for the benchmark. This duration allows for greater carry and net IRR of the fund. In addition, the currency exposure to the USD has been hedged as the investment team has assessed a possible weakness of the USD against the EUR in the short term.
